OPENING PRICES
ARE SOME LOWER

Selling For Both Long and Short Accounts Feature First Few Minutes.

NEW YORK, Dec. 8.—There was some selling for both long and short accounts at the opening of the stock market this morning and during the first few minutes lower prices generally were established. After the initial declines, however, it was evident that a good demand was in the market and the losses were followed by quick rallies. At the end of the first 15 minutes the tone was strong.

Studebaker declined to 1 1/2 to 158 and then rallied to 160.
